 - ii) Available to UFO and PaCE students
 - iii) There is not a virtual component
 - b) Graduate and Professional Schools Fair
 - i) 25 programs are registered for the Virtual component, and they are actively recruiting more organizations
 - ii) PaCE and UFO students are welcome to come to campus as well
 - iii) Being held on October 24th
- 5) Links Orientation (Kris)
 - a) PaCE 2015 Transfer Previews: Either December 8th or 9th (reading days), and January 3rd (Tuesday before classes start, first day that UF reopens after the break)
 - b) PaCE 2015 analysis for transition will happen next Monday
 - i) Holds will be applied October 7th and notifications will go out to students that they may be eligible to transition.

- c) PaCE 2016: right now the system can't distinguish between 2015 and 2016 so they'd get the same Preview hold
 - i) Toby will reconvene the ES group to discuss what will be impacted and how to make the necessary changes so PaCE 2016 students can advanced register, since they will not be attending Preview.
- d) Links- targeting October 17th as the date it will go live for Spring.
 - i) They are trying to move the date earlier to extend the amount of time that students have to complete Links, giving advisors additional time as well.
- 6) Enrollment Management: ROC & OneStop (Melissa, Daniel, Shane)
 - a) 3 new ROC recruiters are live on the phone this week, and they have been doing major specific webinar info sessions
 - b) Shane is continuing his recruitment/travel
 - c) File completion is up 150% from last year, and admits are about equal to last year (year to date)
 - i) There are about 179 more files under review
 - ii) There are also about 90 files that have been referred to colleges/departments
 - iii) Daniel is expecting a larger class than last year's Spring class.
 - d) Nursing increased their cap to a maximum of 90 students total.
 - e) FAFSA Deadlines
 - i) The FAFSA deadline has changed (an email was sent)
 - ii) Financial Aid sent out their semesterly newsletter, and all UFO students receiving aid were sent this email.
 - iii) They are also putting this information in the InfoGator and on the student.ufl.edu splash page
 - iv) They are planning to push hard after October 1st since that is when FAFSA opens.
 - v) Daniel is also trying to get financial aid content to add to the UF Plaza as well as the yield emails to newly admitted students.
 - (1) Glenn will add a financial aid blurb to the email to students reminding them about advanced registration for Spring.
 - (2) OneStop coordinators have also added this blurb to their email signatures
 - f) The new Admissions website went live
 - i) Please check the PaCE page, especially the PaCE majors page, to verify their accuracy
 - ii) Art (all 7 tracks) are being added to PaCE
 - (1) They will allow students to take live art Studio classes while also taking UFO classes
 - (2) Students in the Art track must be willing to move to Gainesville to attend the live studio classes
 - (3) Dance has been eliminated as a PaCE option
- 7) Curriculum Monitoring (Toby)
 - a) Toby thanks everyone who attended the advising Compass session on Tuesday!
- 8) NACADA
 - a) The plan is to cancel the next meeting (which was supposed to be 2 weeks from today) since it will happen during NACADA
- 9) PaCE specific meeting

- a) There have been requests to have PaCE specific meetings
 - b) Glenn is thinking about making them once a month for an hour after the UFO General meeting
 - c) All are in agreement that this would be a good idea
- 10) There has been talk about a faculty and administrator UFO meeting as well.
- 11) PaCE Student Organization (Nicole)
- a) PaCE student organization had their first meeting on this past Monday
 - b) About 40 students attended total, including about 30 new PaCE 2016 students
