The University of Florida’s College of Liberal Arts and Sciences offers students the opportunity to study in Egham, UK at Royal Holloway, University of London. Students can study during the fall, spring, or academic year.

About the University
Royal Holloway, University of London, founded in 1879, is ranked in the top 30 of all UK universities. As a leading research university, it offers a broad range of subjects and has a strong tradition of academic excellence. The historic campus is considered one of the most beautiful in the world and is where most teaching and social activities take place. With a student population of just over 9000, students enjoy a close-knit community and small class sizes.

Requirements/Eligibility
- Open to all CLAS majors (Science majors, including pre-medical/dental/vet students, are encouraged to apply)
- Languages of Instruction: English
- Required GPA: 3.0
- Students must have completed 12 hours of coursework at the University of Florida
- Two letters of recommendation
- Official Transcript
- Statement of Purpose
- Interview with Dr. Brian Harfe, CLAS Associate Dean

Location
Students studying at Royal Holloway, University of London will have the best of both worlds living in Egham, Surrey which is located 40 minutes (by train) outside of bustling London. Students will have easy access to all that London offers, but will still enjoy traditional English village life where there is a strong sense of community.

Housing
Exchange students are guaranteed housing provided their requests are submitted on time. Students have the option of living in catered (with a meal plan) or self-catered (with shared kitchen) residence halls. Most exchange students choose to live in Founder’s Hall located in the beautiful Founder’s building.
