PROGRAM

UF in Salzburg offers programs in Music, European Studies, and Business and is open to all majors. Music majors and minors may take private lessons in music history. The European Studies program provides major credit for History and Political Science majors. Experience the European way of life as well as the European culture, arts, and business worlds.

LOCATION

Salzburg is considered by many to be one of the most beautiful cities in Europe. With a population of about 150,000, Salzburg is situated in the heart of Europe on the northern edge of the eastern Alps right at the Austrian-German border. Surrounded by picturesque mountains, the city still mirrors in its historical center – a declared UNESCO World Heritage Site – more than a thousand years of European history and culture. Its rich and vibrant cultural heritage is reflected in concerts, festivals and a great variety of events throughout the year.

EXCURSIONS

In addition to local excursions, students will spend five nights in Munich, three nights in Vienna, one day in Nuremberg, and take two day trips to other areas of Austria.

HOUSING

Students will stay in the Dorint City-Hotel Salzburg.
